From the Chairperson's Desk

It is my privilege to present the next issue of the Newsletter for the quarter July–September, 2014. The Authority has done a wonderful work in the registration of farmers' varieties in the agrobiodiversity hotspots across the country in close co-operation with our stakeholders especially KVKs and ZPDs. I have visited extensively the agrobiodiversity hotspots areas, SAUs, ICAR Institutes, DUS centres and the Authority got overwhelming support and co-operation of these agencies. As a result of intensive awareness drive amongst farmers and their communities including tribals the information has been percolated at the ground level about the PPV&FR Act and particularly the farmers' rights. Authority has received almost half or applications under farmers' varieties category for registration as compared to total applications received by the Authority under different categories.

Now, we are planning to have an international workshop in collaboration with NBPGR and Regional Office of FAO, Thailand on awareness and capacity building about the implementation of the International Treaty on Plant Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture in the agro-biodiversity hotspots in Bundelkhand. The area has lot of valuable medicinal plants of economic importance in addition to food crops & vegetables. The Authority is also in the process of extending its registration basket as mentioned on page 3 of this Newsletter.

I am thankful to the Editorial Team especially D.S. Mishra, Joint Registrar including and others officers and staff for their valued support and co-operation. I once again invite your valuable suggestions and comments from one and all if any, for the improvement of the content and quality of the Newsletter.

Announcement

Plant Genome Savior “Community Award” 2013-14, Plant Genome Savior

"Farmer Reward" 2014 & Plant Genome Savior "Farmer Recognition" 2014

The Protection of Plant Varieties and Farmers' Rights Authority (PPV&FRA) invites applications for the above mentioned Award/ Reward/ Recognition.

The Protection of Plant Varieties and Farmers' Rights Authority (PPV&FRA) has been established by the Central Government for implementing the Protection of Plant Varieties and Farmers' Rights Act, 2001. The Authority grants exclusive rights to the breeders, farmers and researchers who have bred, evolved or developed any plant varieties. The Protection of Plant Varieties & Farmers' Rights Authority, under the provision of section 45 of PPV&FR Act, 2001 read with Rule 70 (2) (a) of PPV&FR Rules, 2003 has instituted Plant Genome Savior Community Award. To implement section 39 (1) (iii) of PPV&FR Act, 2001, the Central Government has notified the PPV & FR (Recognition and Reward from the Gene Fund) Rules, 2012 for rewarding and recognizing the farmers.

The Authority confers the "Plant Genome Savior "Community Award" annually on the basis of short listing and site verification of the applications received from the community of farmers/farming community based organizations who have a long track record for conserving plant agro-biodiversity. Applications are now invited for the award, which is open to all Indian farmers, community of farmers, particularly the tribal and rural communities engaged in conservation, improvement and preservation of genetic resources of economic plants and their wild relatives particularly in the areas identified as agro bio-diversity hotspots. The list of the agro bio diversity hotspots is available on website of Authority. There shall be maximum of five awards in a year, consisting of cash of Rupees ten lakhs each, a citation and a memento.

The Authority also invites applications for the Plant Genome Savior "Farmer Reward" and Plant Genome Savior "Farmer Recognition" from the farmers engaged in the conservation of genetic resources of landraces and wild relatives of economic plants and their improvement through selection and preservation and the material so selected and preserved has been used as donors of genes in varieties registerable under the PPV&FR Act, 2001. There shall be a maximum of 10 rewards (comprising of citation, memento and cash of Rupees one lakh each and 20 recognitions consisting of a citation and mementos in a year). It is essential for the applicants to forward their applications through Chairperson/Secretary of the concerned Panchayat, Biodiversity Management Committee or concerned District Agricultural Officer or Director of Research of concerned State Agriculture University or concerned District Tribal Development Office. Farmers whose applications are shortlisted for Reward and Recognition shall be required to deposit specified quantity of seeds or propagating material, which will be communicated later.

The applicants who have applied in pursuance of earlier advertisement for the year 2012-2013 may also apply but if selected for award/reward/recognition in pursuance of earlier advertisement their second application will not be considered in accordance with Rule 5(7) of PPV & FR (Recognition and Reward from the Gene Fund) Rules, 2012.
